

Start Your Health Science Career at Memorial Health

Do you like helping people? Do you enjoy math and science?
Are you looking for a career with multiple opportunities for advancement?

Find the right career for you in Health Science.

Education Level	Career	National Job Growth 2021–2023 <small>Average is 5%</small>	Regional Education Programs	Median Salary <small>*Rounded to nearest $500</small>
High School Diploma + Certificate	Certified Nursing Assistant	5%	RCC, LLCC, CACC, Heartland CC	$30,000
	Medical Assistant	16%	CACC, Heartland CC, RCC, LLCC, Midwest Technical Institute	$37,000
	Sterile Processing Tech	6%	LLCC	$43,000
	Pharmacy Tech	5%	RCC, LLCC, Heartland CC	$37,000
	Phlebotomist	10%	RCC, LLCC, Midwest Technical Institute, Heartland CC	$37,000
	Medical Coding	7%	RCC, LLCC, Midwest Technical Institute	$47,000
Associate Degree	Radiology Technologist	6%	RCC, LLCC, Heartland CC	$62,000
	Respiratory Therapist	14%	LLCC	$62,000
	Registered Nurse	6%	RCC, LLCC, Heartland CC	$54,000
	Surgical Technology	6%	RCC, LLCC	$48,500
Bachelor's Degree	Clinical Lab Tech	7%	ISU, UIS, Bradley, EIU, WIU	$58,000
	BSN-RN	6%	ISU, Illinois College, UIC, Millikin, St John's SON	$78,000

Mentioned educational institutions include Lincoln Land Community College (LLCC), Richland Community College (RCC), Heartland Community College (Heartland CC), Capital Area School of Practical Nursing (CASPN)

*Certificates generally require 18 months of education.

Earn while you learn!

Memorial Health will help you grow your health science career after high school. Students who earn their high school diploma are eligible for several entry level careers. Full-time, part-time or per diem colleagues become eligible for career advancement tuition assistance after 200 hours of service and three months of employment.

*National Job Growth and *Median Salary provided by: The National Bureau of Labor Statistics, Occupational Outlook Handbook 2021

What are you waiting for?

Reach out to our student consultant today.

 workforcedevelopment@mhsil.com

 jobs.memorial.health

